Are you a native English speaker? This already gives you amazing opportunities for getting the gospel story to people who have never heard it before!

Because of the Angolans' avid interest in learning English, the church is offering English classes through its Portuguese school called the Instituto de Teologia Evangelica ne Lubango (ISTEL). You would organize the curriculum in addition to teaching English to students from the seminary and offering English classes to people outside the seminary.

Imagine the impact you will have in their lives as you use this method to evangelize the community!
