Do you have a passion to build relationships with young people and encourage them in their walk with God? Are you a team player who loves to work with people? Do you love to learn about new cultures and relate to others in a culturally sensitive way? If so, the Mekelle Youth Center may be just the place for you!

The Mekelle Youth Center gives impoverished youth hope and opportunity through Sports and Recreation opportunities, HIV/AIDS education, English and Computer training and many other practical and life-affirming skills in a loving and positive environment. But most importantly, by God's grace, we are working to develop relationships which impact lives in a most significant and lasting way. Come and see how you can have a dynamic impact on hundreds of youth and be a part of what God is doing here in Mekelle!
