

Associate English Teacher for Ethnic Minorities

Reference number 8371

Continent Asia
Duration Under 1 year
Career Education
Priority Time Sensitive

Are you looking for an opportunity to learn a local language and culture while you are teaching English part-time? You will also learn mission in a field context by participation.

The vision is to see minority communities transformed and minority churches established through excellent educational services. We operate a private educational institute to communicate the Good News to the people through excellent educational services. The one who is working in the company will be involved in the following:

- (1) Building relationships with students through teaching English.
- (2) Sharing the Word with students.
- (3) Discipling students.
- (4) Mentoring and training trainers.
