Do you love working with children? Do you long to show them who Jesus is? We are urgently looking for people with a heart to minister to this needy and vulnerable part of society. People of all ages or levels of training and experience can serve in this area.

It is estimated that by the year 2012 half the population of Bolivia will be under the age of 25 (doctoral thesis of Lucas Leyes at Fuller Seminary). Part of SIM Bolivia's strategy to reach this country for Christ is to develop ministries that focus on children and youth. If God is nudging you in this direction, don't hesitate!
