

English Teachers for Christian School

Reference number 6670

Continent South America
Country Paraguay
Duration Between 1 and 2 years
Career Education
Priority Urgent

English language instruction is highly prized by Paraguayan parents. The attraction of having English taught to their children by native English speakers is a tremendous drawing card for the CEI. Teachers who respond to this need will play an integral part in the evangelistic outreach of the Iglesia Biblica de Villarrica and even to their own children.

This position will also support other families involved in strategic work in Paraguay. There are two new mission families scheduled to begin ministry in Villarrica within the next three years. At least one of these families has indicated that they will use the CEI for their children's educational needs.
