

Ready to serve?

Whether you are considering a short assignment, planning a short-term trip to explore longer-term possibilities, or you already know God is calling you to serve overseas for several years, SIM can help.

If your goal is to spend several years overseas, we can help you find the overseas opportunity most suited to you, and discuss what preparation and training you might need before you go. Sacrificing many of the comforts of home in order to really relate to a new culture and its people, may sound like a challenging step to take, but it could become the most exciting journey of your life.

A shorter assignment may be a way to explore ministry opportunities and test how your skills and experience might be used in the future. Or it may be that God calls you out of your culture and comfort zone for a specific assignment during which He will work in and through you. You will return with a greater understanding of God's work around the world, and a passion to be involved at the home end by praying and supporting others who are working overseas.
