

Give your kids a heart for mission

This is the fourth of our interactive Bible studies for you to do with your children — or even your grandchildren!

We've teamed up with Teaching and Training (TnT) Ministries to produce a high-quality series of lessons about global mission for use in Sunday schools.

We've picked out some 'edited highlights' below but if you'd like the full version just visit mustard-seeds.net.

In this issue, we're looking at how God has a message for all nations.

Read Acts 13: 13–52 with your youngster and go through the questions — if you're struggling the leaders' notes are at sim.co.uk/resources.

A Message for All Nations

The true story can be found in Acts 13:13–52

Who did Paul address in his sermon? (13:16, 26)

Circle all the correct answers

Only the Jews Gentiles Men of Israel (Jews)
His father People from Jerusalem

Paul spoke of Israel's past and how God had always kept his promises. Number the events below from 1 to 5 to put them in the right order (13:17–22, 24)

___ The work of John the Baptist
___ 40 years in the desert
___ King David's reign

___ The escape from Egypt
___ Joshua's conquest of Canaan

Who fulfilled all of God's promises about a saviour? (13:27–29, 32–33)

How did the people respond to Paul's message?

Some f _____ Paul and Barnabas (13:43)

Others were j _____ and spoke against Paul (13:45)

Some were glad and b _____ (13:48)

Others p _____ Paul and Barnabas and made them l _____ (13:50)

What did Paul and Barnabas do when some Jews tried to harm them? (13:51–52)

Tick all the correct answers

- They were sad and angry They rejoiced in the Holy Spirit
 They left the city They called them names in return

Discuss

Why did Paul speak to both Jews and Gentiles?

What was so important about his message?

Who do we need to tell about Jesus?

How might people respond?

Are there some people you don't want to speak to because of how you think they will treat you?

How should you act towards these people?