

Give your kids a heart for mission

Here's the third of Hour interactive Bible studies that you can do with your children — or even your grandchildren!

We've teamed up with Teaching and Training (TnT) Ministries to produce a high-quality series of lessons about global mission for use in Sunday schools. We've picked out some 'edited highlights' below, as an introduction to the material — if you'd like to get hold of the full version just visit mustard-seeds.net.

In this issue, we're looking at how God is a blessing for all nations. To start the study just read Psalm 67:1–7 and Genesis 12:2–3 with your youngster and talk through the questions below. (Don't worry if you're struggling for the answers — we've put up the leaders' notes at sim.co.uk/resources).

Do let us know what you think of the study — email Serving Him editor Tim Allan (tim@sim.co.uk).

A Blessing for All Nations

The true story can be found in Psalm 67:1–7

What does the psalmist ask God for? (Psalm 67:1)

His b _____

Why does the psalmist ask for this?

_____ (Psalm 67:1)

_____ (Psalm 67:2)

Think?
Spot

What does the word 'blessing' mean?

Look up Genesis 12:2–3. What is special about the psalmist's request?

Who does the psalmist want to praise God? (67:3,5)

A _____ p _____

Why do they praise him? List the reasons the psalmist gives — there are at least five!

---

---

---

In what ways has God blessed you and your family?

How should you respond to God's blessing?

How can God's kindness to you help others to know him? What could you do, say and pray to show them?

What does it mean when God doesn't give us something good or when life is hard?

Discuss