

Help your kids grasp mission!

Here's the second of our fantastic interactive Bible studies you can do with your children — or even your grandchildren!

We've teamed up with Teaching and Training (TnT) Ministries, who produce excellent Bible-teaching resources for children's ministry, to provide four high-quality lessons about global mission for use in Sunday schools. We carried the last one in the previous issue of Serving Him and now we're on to God's promise for all nations. We hope it will help your young people see the importance of global mission.

To start the study, just read Genesis 12:1-7 and then Galatians 3:6-9, 14 with your youngster and then work through the questions below. (If you're struggling for the answers we've put some leaders' notes on our website at www.sim.co.uk/resources).

Please do let us know what you think of the study — contact Serving Him by emailing the editor, Tim Allan (tim@sim.co.uk).

To find out more about TnT's downloadable resources, visit www.mustard-seeds.net to view sample lessons in a range of languages.

A Promise for All Nations

The true story can be found in Genesis 12:1-7 and Galatians 3:6-9, 14

What did God tell Abraham to do? (Genesis 12:1)

How did Abraham respond to God's command? (Genesis 12:4)

What three things did God promise to do for Abraham?

(Genesis 12:2)

(Genesis 12:3)

(Genesis 12:7)

Think Spot

Do you think this was an easy thing for Abraham to do?

Why do you think he obeyed?

Look up Galatians 3:6-9, 14.

How was Abraham justified?

Who else can be justified? And how can this happen to them?

In what way did God keep his promise to Abraham?

What does God promise all those who put their trust in Jesus?

Why is it important to tell other people about this good news?

Discuss

